Local Area Guide

Greenwich Campus

Where Are We?

- Greenwich Campus sits on a World Heritage Site and is in the heart of Greenwich, south-east London. The neighborhood has a lively atmosphere but is away from the hustle and bustle of the city, making it the ideal place to study.
- The University of Greenwich invested heavily in its learning and social spaces. The Stockwell Street Building is home to the campus library, film and TV studios, and state-of-the-art editing suites. Dreadnought Building is a central hub for the Greenwich Campus and The Stephen Lawrence Gallery showcases the work of contemporary artists.
- Greenwich Campus also has an on-site bar, two coffee shops, and a number of places to grab a bite to eat.
- However, if you are wanting to get out an explore the local area, here is the information you need.
