Ceremonies
2024

Welcome

“ I am so delighted to be celebrating your successes with you today as we mark the culmination of your time at the University of Greenwich. ”

A handwritten signature in black ink, reading 'J. Harrington', with a stylized flourish at the end.

It is my privilege to welcome you today's graduation ceremony.

I am delighted to be celebrating your successes with you today as we mark the culmination of your time at the University of Greenwich.

Your commitment to your studies, personal and professional development and each of your successes during your time with us has been a pleasure to see. Today is when all your hard work pays off. This is your opportunity to celebrate your achievements with the people who matter the most – your family and friends.

I hope that the whole of the University of Greenwich – your tutors, your peers, your supporters – have helped you realise your amazing potential.

Your connection with the university continues after your graduation, as you now join an influential and prestigious community of Greenwich alumni who are inspiring the next generation of graduates.

To take advantage of this exclusive network, join Ask Alumni+, an online community where you can stay in touch with other graduates, share career insights and connect with future generations of Greenwich alumni.

You can also receive support from our Employability and Careers Service to help you achieve your work ambitions. If you are thinking of continuing your studies with us, you may also be eligible for an Greenwich Progression Bursary.

We would love to hear how you are doing, so please keep our Alumni Team up to date with your latest contact details and news. In return, they will let you know how to benefit from your membership with the alumni community. I look forward to following and celebrating all your upcoming successes. Congratulations on everything you have achieved and I wish you every success for your future.

I know you will continue to make us proud.

Professor Jane Harrington

Vice-Chancellor and CEO,
University of Greenwich

“ Graduation marks the culmination of much effort on your part as students. All those whose contribution to your lives have made it possible, particularly your family and friends, join with me as Chancellor in celebrating your achievement. Heartfelt congratulations!”

The Rt Hon the Lord Boateng

CVO DL, Chancellor

The University of Greenwich welcomes you to a world-wide family of Alumni who graduated in years gone by and for whom this event marked only the beginning of a journey upon which you too will now embark. You will take with you more than a formal qualification but also a set of skills and above all relationships that will serve you well in years to come.

The relationships you have made with one another, with Faculty and other members of the University family, will remain with you as a source of joyful memory and continuing inspiration and friendship. Do make use of them! The University will be there for you, and you are a valuable resource for the University.

Our world, confronting the challenges of conflict, climate change and a cost of living crisis that affects communities everywhere, needs all that you have acquired in your years at Greenwich. The skills and relationships you possess are a valuable asset for the global community.

Higher Education is rightly seen as making a crucial contribution to achieving the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals.

Your efforts as a beneficiary of such an education are needed to make it possible to meet these unifying goals to defeat poverty, inequality and environmental degradation. We are all looking to you to go out and make a difference not just in your own life, but in the world.

Underpinning your actions and giving you strength will be not just a set of skills and relationships but above all the values that we treasure and celebrate at this University. The values of respect, inclusivity, diversity and impactful excellence are at the heart of everything we seek to do at the University of Greenwich.

Well done on all you have already achieved and best wishes for all that you are going on to do. Universities are the depositories of hope. The hopes are not just yours for a better life, but the hopes of us all for a better world. These hopes rest upon your shoulders. I know you will not disappoint. For you, and for our world, I have no doubt that the best is yet to come..

Congratulations

On behalf of the Royal Borough of Greenwich, it gives me great pleasure to congratulate you on your well-deserved success and your academic achievement.

I hope you had lots of fun and made some life-long friends on the way.

This is a proud moment for you and your family, but it's also a proud moment for the Royal Borough of Greenwich.

I am sure today will be the first of many such proud successes for you in your life. Please join the Alumni of the university so you can put something back.

I look forward to your Graduation Ceremony at the University of Greenwich in 2024 and hope to meet you in person.

Best wishes for a healthy, happy and successful future.

Once again, well done!

Councillor Dominic Mbang

Mayor of the Royal Borough of Greenwich

Namaste

Through all your individual, unique life's journeys that brought you to the University of Greenwich, you had one common vision - to learn, develop, grow and become skilled experts in your areas of study. This goal also brought many of you to our wonderful Medway, where we welcome and value every individual; we see potential in everyone and believe in working together to promote the highest outcomes for everyone who lives, studies and works here. On this magnificent day, as you celebrate your graduation among family, friends, cohort students and academic staff, the people of Medway join me in celebrating this glorious moment with you. Our heartiest congratulations! We are so very proud of you!

Graduation Day is also a poignant reminder of how far you have come, and that you remained focused, determined and stoic; you also sought support and guidance when needed; we salute these extraordinary hallmarks of your individual resilience and reflective capabilities. May these remarkable qualities serve you equally well in your chosen career fields or other areas of interest and may the best wishes from all the wonderful people of Medway carry you far in your exciting journeys and endeavours. May the positive relationships you built during your time here be enduring.

We know there are future pioneers, torchbearers, innovators and leaders among you; as you progress towards fulfilling careers and leadership roles, may you always practice, lead and serve with compassion and clarity so that you become shining examples in your communities and to all of humankind. This is what all your educators, the University and the kind and compassionate people of Medway hope and expect most from you.

Medway is a special place with very proud history and immense potential and we feel privileged to have the University of Greenwich, with its own glorious history, based at our Medway Campus. Medway also takes pride in being child-friendly and family friendly with so many green spaces and things to see and enjoyable activities to immerse in. It's no surprise that Medway is attracting people and families of all ages, capabilities and backgrounds, alongside new and traditional industries too. I hope that you have all enjoyed your time studying and developing your skills here. We hope that many of you will go on to make Medway your home or enjoy varied career opportunities here; you know how welcome you are.

I believe that today's graduation is just the first of many proud achievements you will experience in your lifetime. On behalf of all the people of Medway, I wish you a very happy and successful future where all your aspirations will be fulfilled. May your aspirations and achievements also benefit and inspire everyone around you and the generations to come.

Well done once again!

With warmest regards,

Cllr Nina Gurung
Mayor of Medway

Kumush Atayeva

Course: MA International Human Resources Management, 2017

Job: HR Deputy Manager,
Bouygues UK (Civil Works

“ My time studying at the University of Greenwich has played an immense role both in my career and in my life.”

“After graduation, I participated in the John Smith Fellowship Programme sponsored by the Foreign and Commonwealth Office. This was a changing point in my career as, following my dissertation interest, I had a chance to continue everything that I had researched up to that point.

Following the completion of the Fellowship I joined a French construction company, based in London, where I currently work as a HR Deputy Manager. For my long-term plan,

I would like to train university students in International HR Management and to create a social enterprise dedicated to people with disabilities. I also look forward to coming back to the University of Greenwich to speak to current students about my experiences and to provide support.”

Yoma James Kukor

Course: BA Business Studies, 2012; MA International Business, 2019

Job: Co-Founder and COO, Vendoir Limited

“ My Snapshot represents a day of celebration, that I chose to appreciate life and how far I have come after the completion of my studies.”

“My studies have contributed massively towards my early success and I strongly recommend the Greenwich Business School to any future entrepreneur.”

“I made lifetime friends at Greenwich. I also loved the beautiful campus and whenever I walk or drive past the campus it just brings back great memories. The library was a place I enjoyed visiting, while I also valued the friendly nature of the lecturers.

Since graduating in 2019 I have gone on to co-found my own start-up, Vendoir, raising £100k in the process from investors, valuing the business at £1M. My plan for the future is to expand Vendoir to more territories globally.”

Course: BSc Film and Television Production, 2016

Job: Creative Services Executive,
Warner Bros. Entertainment

*“The university has amazing studio
space, software and equipment which was hugely beneficial
in my area; it was a great choice to study
there.”*

“The course allowed me to try out many different areas, such as camera operating and sound design and helped me learn what area I wanted to work within. Many people on my course have since become freelancers and many have helped each other get jobs within the field.

I've worked in the film industry for over 5 years after graduating from the Film and TV Production programme in 2016. I've worked across marketing, publicity, social media, VFX, and now I work within a creative services team at Warner Bros. Entertainment.”
