

Are you a phenomenology researcher with an interest in health and social care?

Are you curious about the philosophy of hermeneutic phenomenology?

Save the dates and join us for either or both of two amazing in-person events this summer at the University of Greenwich, London, facilitated by leading phenomenology researchers.

Summer School: 15th-17th June 2023

Conference: 19th-20th June 2023

Summer School: Thinking about thinking - where you will learn about the philosophy and methodology of hermeneutic phenomenological research, meet inspiring researchers, and network with like-minded delegates.

Register your interest via this link

Conference: Hermeneutic Phenomenology in Research Praxis – a stimulating event for any qualitative researcher wishing to engage with experienced researchers and practitioners in the field, and to network with others in hermeneutic phenomenological theory and practice.

Register your interest via this link

Further details will follow shortly; if you require additional information now, please contact ild@gre.ac.uk

UNIVERSITY OF GREENWICH

Institute for Lifecourse Development